

2024 Alberta 55 plus Provincial Winter Games – Camrose
DESCRIPTION OF CREATIVE WRITING EVENTS

Note: Entries must adhere to guidelines and length restrictions for each Class or will be disqualified. Entrants are requested to include an email address on Entry Form. Zone winners will be contacted to re-send their entry as an email attachment in a specified format.

Class A – Poetry

Maximum 34 lines

An expression of thoughts, feelings or imagery that uses distinctive style and rhythm. Poetry may be rhymed or free verse.

Example - Free Verse: A Time to Talk by Robert Frost

When a friend calls to me from the road	No, not as there is a time to talk.
And slows his horse to a meaning walk,	I thrust my hoe in the mellow ground,
I don't stand still and look around	Blade end up and five feet tall,
On all the hills I haven't hoed,	And plod: I go up to the stone wall
And shout from where I am, "What is it?"	For a friendly visit.

Class B –Light Verse

Maximum: Limerick 5 lines; or Haiku 3 lines; or Humorous verse 15 lines

A category for a limerick, OR haiku, OR "Ogden Nash" style humorous poetry.

- Example – Limerick (5 lines)

Here lies a young salesman named Phipps,
Who married, on one of his trips,
A widow named Block –
Then died of the shock,
When he saw there were six little chips. Anonymous

- Example – Haiku (a 3-line traditional Japanese verse form consisting of 17 syllables in 3 metrical units of 5, 7 and 5 syllables)

Little butterfly
floating over the flowers spring is beginning. Unknown

Class C - Fiction

Maximum 2000 words

A story that is based on imagined characters and events; or on real characters placed in imaginary situations, and written in the form of a mystery, romance, tale, etc., and composed for entertainment. Strong fictional story structure includes conflict, story climax and resolution.

Note: if the entry is written in the first person, a disclaimer must be signed on the entry form that any resemblance to actual persons or events is purely co-incidental.

Class D - Non-fiction - Serious

Maximum 2000 words

A literary composition that is written as

- a) a composition based on facts, real people and real events, or
- b) an essay that expresses the author's point of view on a particular subject and is intended to instruct, to inform, to explain, or to convince.

Class E - Non-fiction - Humorous

Maximum 2000 words

The kind of writing in which humor means "in a lighthearted manner". A serious subject can be written in a way that is clever, ironic, or satirical but should, overall, produce a "real chuckle".
